Notice:

Many materials in the Lakeshore Museum Center archival collection are published materials where fair use copyright law applies. The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted materials. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a reproduction request if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the request would involve violation of copyright law.

In return for permission to utilize material from the Lakeshore Museum Center, I (we) agree to the following conditions:

I (we) understand that any copies, scans or digital images of materials have been reproduced for a one- time use only and cannot be transferred to others or duplicated without written permission from the Lakeshore Museum Center (LMC).

I (we) agree to pay the current LMC fees for the reproduction of materials and research fees and will provide the Lakeshore Museum Center with a copy of any publication in which this material is used and copies of any negatives, transparencies, or photographic prints of the material generated by the project.

I (we) agree that upon publication, display or reproduction of any material from the Lakeshore Museum Center, credit will be given as follows: "From the Collection of the Lakeshore Museum Center."

I (we) understand that permission to publish, reproduce, or otherwise use Lakeshore Museum Center materials is solely at the discretion of the Museum.

The Lakeshore Museum Center makes no claim that it is the owner of the copyright on literary property in unpublished manuscripts, musical works, artwork, or photographs where the originals were not produced by LMC.

I (we) assume any and all responsibility for questions of copyright from the preparation and use of these reproductions, including that of third party claims.

In return for being provided research access to the collection of the Lakeshore Museum Center, I (we) have read and agree to abide by the terms and conditions listed above:
